The Sign Over Your Door

Is a good thing, isn't it? You would not think of doing business without it. BUT it is only seen by those who pass your way. If you could put a sign where everyone could see it, would it interest you?

The City Directory

Is where people look for you when they want to do business. You should make it easy for them to find you, by putting such information as a buyer wants in the Directory, properly indexed under all headings, where he might look for you.

INTRODUCTORY

This is the forty-third volume of the City Directory of Fort Wayne, compiled by R. L. Polk & Co.

The prime function of a city directory is to furnish a list of all residents of a city, showing their occupation, place of business and residence, but the Fort Wayne directory does more than this. It provides a vast fund of useful information on many subjects. It has complete lists of all lines of business. It is a record of the commercial, industrial, social, religious and educational activities of the city, and there is no other publication which is so sure an index of a city's development and standing. There are in this volume 43,680 names, which multiplied by two, gives Fort Wayne a population of 87,360.

Perhaps in no other way is the progress or decline of a city more clearly shown than through the medium of the city directory. During periods of special prosperity, great numbers of people may be seen upon the streets, and the cry goes out, "How we are growing," but the next week when the excitement is over and the crowds decline then we look upon the matter with different eyes. One week business may be good, and the bank clearings out of the ordinary and again we cry, "Prosperity," but with changing conditions business again changes and then we feel we are falling behind rather than advancing. But the City Directory stands as a means of correct information concerning the city's growth and its corresponding prosperity from year to year.

But the value of a directory does not consist altogether as a work of reference concerning names, addresses and population. With every firm advertised through its columns it becomes an official directory to the commercial opportunities or the mercantile advantages of the city.

A classified city directory keeps the medium of supply of household necessities ever before the eyes of the readers and thus serves a useful and valuable purpose.

As heretofore the canvass has been made by men who have had many years experience in directory work. By our duplicate system of securing the names at places of business and employment as well as at dwellings by checking and re-canvassing there is but small chance of any one being overlooked. The directory publisher realizes that in no publication is accuracy so necessary as in the city directory and therefore the greatest vigilence is used to have the spelling of the names correct as well as the occupation and address.

It is a well known axiom with directory makers, that "to find a name you must know how it is spelled." Sometimes a names may be incorrectly spelled in the directory, but only in unavoidable instances and is usually not the fault of the nametaker, but the result of absent-mindedness or indifference of the person furnishing the information.

This directory has been printed in Fort Wayne by union labor. It reflects the enterprise and industries of Fort Wayne. It stands for Fort Wayne and it should be in possession of every Fort Wayne man who is sufficiently interested in Fort Wayne to want to know all about Fort Wayne.

SOME SUBSTANTIAL STATEMENTS

"Fort Wayne, from which the name of the city is derived, was erected in 1794 by General Anthony Wayne at that point where the St. Mary's and the St. Joseph's unite to form the Maumee river, which flows into Lake Erie at Toledo.

"It had been an Indian trading post for a hundred years previous, its Indian name being 'Kekionga.'

"It had been held in earlier times by the French, who built a fort for its protection a short distance west, on the St. Mary's river and later by the English, who constructed a fort on the St. Joseph's, a short distance north of the site chosen for 'Fort Wayne.'"

Within its corporate limits it has nine miles of rivers —five of the St. Mary's, two of the St. Joseph's and two of the Maumee. All of these river banks within the city, are owned by the city, and are to be parked and boulevarded.

Fort Wayne has never had a "boom," and it has never stopped growing. Its population in 1840 was 2,050; in 1850, 4,282; in 1860, 10,388; in 1870, 17,718; in 1880, 26,880; in 1890, 35,393; in 1900, 52,057; in 1910, 71,50; in 1911, 75,448; in 1912, 76,320; in 1913, 79,520; in 1914, 82,764; in 1915, 83,250; in 1916, 87,360.

It has four east and west trunk line railways—the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago (Pennsylvania lines), the Wabash, the New York, Chicago and St. Louis (Nickel Plate), and the New York Central Lines. It has two north and south trunk lines—the Grand Rapids and Indiana, and the Lake Erie and Western. It is the western terminus of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton.

It has six miles of interurban railways, with others building and in contemplation. These railways have a direct connection with the great interurban systems of Ohio and Indiana.

Within a radius of about 200 miles Fort Wayne is about equidistant from her sister cities of Indianapolis, Toledo, Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago and Grand Rapids.

It has no slum district. It is a city of homes, the proportion of home owners to its population being greater than in any city of its class in the United States.

It is known as the "Summit City," as it sits upon the crest of the water shed, from whence the waters flow east to the St. Lawrence and west to the Mississippi.

It is on the line of the proposed deep water way known as the Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago Trunk Line Barge Canal, which will unite the waters of Lake Michigan and Lake Erie.

It has the best distributed system of parks of any city in the state, twelve in number, with four others now being acquired. When these are secured there will be a park within ten minutes' walk of the home of every citizen in Fort Wayne.

It has a commercial club with a membership of 800, to the members of which the city is indebted for the new Anthony hotel, costing for grounds, buildings and furnishings, over $500,000.00.

It has the finest county court house west of the Alleghenies, designed by a Fort Wayne architect and built without a dollar of "graft" going into it.

It has four national banks with assets of $19,310,505.70, four trust companies with over $11,288,899.56 and four private banks.

It owns its own waterworks with an ample supply of pure deep rock well water, the value of the plant being estimated at $2,000,000.00; the rates are the lowset in the State. There are one hundred and forty-five miles of pipe.

It owns its own electric lighting plant for both city and commercial purposes, valued at $350,000.00 and is already earning a net annual profit over operating expenses and renewals of $50,000.

It has eighty-four and four-tenths miles of paved streets, thirty-one and one-half miles being asphalt.

It has the finest public market house in Indiana.

It has over fifty churches; three large public hospitals; four fine opera houses; three large photo play houses, and eight smaller ones; nineteen large public school buildings; several with fine playgrounds attached, three public play grounds, and many fine parochial schools; the handsomest Scottish Rite cathedral in the world; a beautiful Masonic Temple, and elegant country club, and a $100,000.00 Young Woman's Christian Association and has just raised by public subscription over $338,000.00 for a Young Men's Christian Association.

It is one of the best lighted cities in the country, all of its business section being illuminated with five-light ornamental lamp posts, placed seventy-five feet apart on both sides of the street.

It has four daily newspapers, three of these of very wide circulation, covering all or northeastern Indiana and northwestern Ohio.

It has some of the largest manufacturing plants in the United States, among which are the Pennsylvania shops, the General Electric Co, Fort Wayne Works; the Bass Foundry and Machine Works; the Wayne Knitting Mills, the largest fulfashioned hosiery mill in the country, employing 3,000 people; the Packard Piano Company; the Western Gas Construction Company; the Bowser Oil Tank and Pump Company; The Wayne Oil Tank & Pumping Co; The Van Arnam Mfg Co; the General Electric Lamp Factory, and many others.

The bank clearings for the year 1915 totaled $66,507,-702.33.

Benjamin Franklin was in this business too—

but we have Franklin beaten

when it comes to saving money for our customers.

Because—

We have the sales experience, the advertising experts, the artists, the engravers and the printers, combined in one organization, to put brains into the production of your printed matter

Best of All—This complete service is yours at an economical cost—not that we are cutting prices, but because of the interlocking of the various departments, effecting an efficiency necessary to produce a complete product at a low cost.

We Guarantee better results for each dollar you intend to spend for products in our line than you can obtain from any other source, and you can depend upon our enthusiastic co-operation.

Directory Borrowers

We receive many complaints from our patrons to the effect that they are bothered so much by BORROWERS. These parties are not the private citizens nor the stranger in the city, who steps in, looks at the Directory and goes out, but merchants, business and professional men, who need a Directory every day of the year, yet who are two close-fitted to buy one.

These same individuals are the ones that borrow your Directory "just for a minute," which, in the majority of cases, means a day or perhaps a week unless you remember that they have it and send for it.

These same borrowers will tell the Directory canvasser that he has "no use for a Directory," that he "knows everybody," and vice versa, "everybody knows him."
